F Numb. 149.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, October, 8. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Octob. 7.

From the Camp at Luzara, Septemb. 22.

ALL the Deſerters from the Enemy report that their Horſe ſuffer very much for want of Forrage, for which they are forc'd to go a great way; inſomuch that the Officers have been oblig'd to ſend part of their Equipages to Oſtiglia. On the 17th the Duke de Vendome detach'd the Count d' Etain with 4 Battalions and 11 Squadrons to poſt himſelf at Carpi, 7 Leagues from hence, to incommode the Enemy who forrage within the Neighbourhood of that Town; and he has ſince ſent more Troops after him. We are repairing the Fortifications of Guaſtalla, and new ones will be added; and a Bridge is laying over the Po near that Place, which will be finiſh'd to day or to morrow.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Oct. 12.

They write from Rome of the 29th ult. That the Saturday before, an Expreſs arriv'd from the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara, to acquaint the Pope that Prince Eugene had demanded Winter Quarters in the Ferrareſe for the Imperial Army; as alſo the City of Ferrara or Bologna for a Place of Arms, the Port of Cornetto for a numerous Squadron of Engliſh and Dutch Men of War who are to come into the Mediterranean for the Service of his Imperial Majeſty, and leave to buy a certain quantity of Corn in the Eccleſiaſtical State for the Subſiſtance of his Troops. That the Pope had call'd a Congregation upon it, in which, after ſome Debate, it was reſolv'd to refuſe Prince Eugene all his Demands, except that to buy Corn in the Provinces of Ferrara or Bologna. That Cardinal Fourbin having likewiſe demanded Winter Quarters in the Parmeſan for the Confederate Troops of France and Spain, Colorno in the ſame Dutchy for a Place of Arms, and Permiſſion to buy Corn in the Ferrareze for the Subſiſtance of thoſe Troops; the Pope had held a Congregation in which it was concluded to refuſe all thoſe Demands, except the buying of Corn: That ſeveral other Congregations had been held, not only upon certain Pretenſions of the Duke of Modena, in relation to ſome Lands of his in the Ferrareze; and upon his deſign to retire to Rome till the Troubles of Italy are over; but alſo on the Advice that the Chevalier Fourbin with his Squadron is come to Goro in Romagna, where he has burnt a great quantity of Corn belonging to the Imperialiſts and to the Inhabitants of that Place, and repuls'd ſome of the Pope's Forces who would have oppos'd him: All which gives his Holyneſs no little diſturbance, and he has reſolv'd to augment his Troops for the better ſecurity of his Frontiers.

They write from Milan of the 27th that the Army of the two united Crowns was extreamly diminiſh'd by Deſertion and Sickneſs. That there are above 12000 ſick or wounded in the Hoſpitals of Cremona and Lodi; and proportionably in Reggio and Cazal Maggiore; all brought from that Army. That their Loſs before Guaſtalla was not leſs than 2000 men. That the Partys of the Germans were continually making inroads into the Milaneſe; and that they had carry'd off 500 Horſe that were at graſs, belonging to the Iriſh that are garriſon'd in Cremona.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Octob. 7.

Paris, Oct. 1. We have advice from Carthagena and the Havana, that Rear Admiral Bembo had written from Jamaica to the Governours of thoſe two Places, offering them all manner of good uſage, if they would acknowledg the Emperor, and deliver thoſe two Places into his hands threatning to treat them with Severity, if they ſhould be compell'd to ſubmit themſelves by Force. But they have both refus'd to comply with his Demands.

From the Hague Gazette, Dated Oct. 13.

Ratisbon, Oct. 2. On the 28th ult. the Declaration of War againſt France, the Duke of Anjou, their Adherents, and all others that ſhall make any diverſion in their favour, to the Diſturbance of the Empire, on any pretence whatſoever; was read and approv'd by the 3 Colleges of Electors, Princes, and Citys of the Empire. And at the ſame time they reſolv'd to aſſiſt the Emperor in obliging the Elector of Bavaria to reſtore the City of Ulm; that the whole Body of the Diet ſhould enter into the Grand Alliance; and that they would invite the Princes of Italy, the Swiſs Cantons, and other Potentates, to concur with the Emperor in proſecuting the common Cauſe of Europe.

They write from Germany that the Swiſs Cantons have already order'd 6000 men under Collonel Friſchirg with 8 pieces of Cannon, to march; which will be follow'd by 4 or 5000 more, if the others are not ſufficient for the defence of the Forreſt Towns.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Octob. 12.

They write from Vienna of the 30th ult. that the Emperor is frequently in Council about the preſent juncture of Affairs: and that his Imperial Majeſty had written with his own hand to the Elector of Bavaria, to exhort him to return to his Duty; that otherwiſe he would be put under the Ban of the Empire, and attack'd by an Army of 30 or 40000 men. 'Tis ſaid the Biſhop of Wurtzbourg has offer'd the Emperor 4000 men.

From the Amſterdam Courant, Dated Octob. 14.

Baſil, Oct. 4. Two or 3 days ago the Marquiſs de Villars came with his Army under the Cannon of Hunninghen over againſt Fridlingen; He paſs'd over the Bridge that lies from Hunninghen to the little Iſland in the Rhine, and laid another Bridg from that Iſland to the German ſide of the River, in ſight of the Imperialiſts, and order'd a Redoubt to be caſt up at the head of it. On Sunday the Imperialiſts drove the French out of that Work, but the next day the French poſſeſs'd themſelves of it agen without any oppoſition; and at preſent the Imperialiſts lie within Musket ſhot of them. The Imperialiſts fill'd 6 great Boats with Stones under our Bridge, and let them down the Stream to break the Enemy's Bridge, but they drew ſome of the Boats of their Bridge aſide, and left a Paſſage for thoſe Boats laden with Stones to drive through; had the Germans put but one man into each Boat to ſteer them, their Project might have ſucceeded better. Our Regency is highly diſpleas'd at this Action of the Imperialiſts expecting that the French will charge us with breaking the Neutrality; and have complain'd of it to the Imperial Envoy, who diſapproves it likewiſe.
